CITY MANAGER

CalWater Update: As part of the ongoing Palos Verdes Peninsula Water Reliability Project, California Water Service Co. will close a portion of southbound Rolling Hills Road in front of Rolling Hills Montessori School in Rolling Hills Estates next week to accommodate pipeline installation in the driveway of the school.

From Monday, April 1, to Friday, April 5, the southbound lane of Rolling Hills Road will be closed from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. and flaggers will be on site to help facilitate alternating one-way traffic via the northbound lane.

Cal Water strongly encourages drivers to use alternate streets to avoid traffic delays, especially during peak hours. Drivers who typically use Rolling Hills Road to get to Palos Verdes Drive North are asked to use Crenshaw Boulevard instead.

For more information, visit pvpwaterproject.com

Construction schedule:
9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

- Monday – Friday
- Southbound lane closed
- Flaggers will facilitate alternating one-way traffic via the northbound lane

Situational Awareness Seminar on PVptv: PVptv Cox 35/FiOS 39 has five airings scheduled next week of last September's Situational Awareness Seminar at the Norris Pavilion. Law enforcement expert Erik Franco shares tips and best practices for personal safety, including an overview of the "Run, Hide, Fight, Treat" methodology.

PVptv will air a recording of the seminar at 5:30 p.m. on the following days:

- Mon. April 1
- Wed. April 3
- Thurs. April 4
- Fri. April 5
- Sat. April 6

Letter to CalPERS: On March 25, the City submitted a letter to the CalPERS Board of Administration (see attachments) asking the panel to table a discussion considering adopting as precedent a September 2018 decision that an interim finance director for the Cambria Community Services District in San Luis Obispo County was eligible for CalPERS membership during her eight-month tenure in 2014 even though she was employed by a contractor (see attached). The City requested CalPERS work with municipalities to create a streamlined policy for agencies to follow, whether or not they retain services from vendors on the interim or from third-party contractors. The matter is scheduled to go before the board on May 15. Staff will continue to monitor this matter.

Letter to LACBoS: On March 25, the City submitted a letter to Los Angeles County Supervisor Kathryn Barger (see attachments) supporting her motion to clarify the county’s policy requiring 15% property tax thresholds for cities to participate in Enhanced Infrastructure Financing Districts and Community Revitalization and Investment Authority Projects, which are new tax increment financing tools after the loss of redevelopment agencies. The language of the August 2017 policy was ambiguous and effectively made 71 cities ineligible, including Rancho Palos Verdes, which has a 6% share of property tax. On March 26, the Board of Supervisors passed Barger’s motion (see attachments) revising the policy to clarify that ongoing sources of funding other than property tax may be used to achieve the 15% threshold; that failure to meet the threshold does not preclude a city’s ability to participate; and that overriding considerations may be considered in lieu of the threshold.

PUBLIC WORKS

Maintenance Activities: This week, Public Works (PW) maintenance continued the de-weeding process throughout the City with help from the goats and staff. Public Works continued clearing Palos Verdes South medians. PW also contacted Terranea and Trump properties and advised them to start to clean up on the right of way that borders the City. Keeping with spring cleaning, PW has cleaned-up its corp yard in preparation for the Annual Hazardous Waste Disposal Day which will be open to residents this weekend. PW also continues to respond to emergency and after hours calls. Lastly, PW ordered grinder pumps in anticipation of regular replacement requirements in the event of a grinder sewer pump failure in the Abalone Cove Sewer District.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Regional Housing Needs Assessment (RHNA) Methodology Survey: In preparation for the upcoming 6th RHNA cycle, on March 19, 2019, the Community Development Department received the RHNA Methodology Survey from the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG). As previously reported, SCAG is in the process of developing the 6th cycle RHNA allocation, which will cover the planning period of October 2021 through October 2029. SCAG is beginning to develop a proposed RHNA methodology, which will be used to determine the City's draft RHNA allocation. As part of the methodology, SCAG is surveying its local jurisdictions on local opportunities and constraints that might affect the methodology. The deadline to submit the survey information is April 30th. City Staff is currently in the process of completing the survey and will provide additional updates as more information becomes available.

Real Estate Sign Regulations: Over the past few months, the City has received complaints regarding a proliferation of real estate signs on private property and in the public right-of-way that don't comply with the Municipal Code's regulations. In response, the City prepared the attached flyer (see attachment) with general information on the City's real estate sign regulations in accordance with RPVMC § 17.76.050(D). The flyer was provided to realtors attending a meeting with the Director on March 25th and will be presented to the Palos Verdes Board of Realtors Association who will assist the City in its outreach efforts. Additionally, the City's website was updated with similar information and can be viewed at www.rpvca.gov/338/Real-Estate-Signs.

Nantasket Drive Subdivision Rough Grading Completed: Grading to accommodate the four lot subdivision on Nantasket Drive associated with Vesting Parcel Map No. 69928 has been underway since June 2018. On March 26, 2019, the Building & Safety Division received the required certifications from the various engineers and the grading contractor, stating that the rough grading was completed in substantial compliance with the City-approved grading plans. The permits for the residential construction and fine grading for three of the four lots have been issued and permits are pending for the remaining lot which is anticipated to be issued within the next few months.

Peninsula Seniors Relocation Update: The Peninsula Seniors have been working on moving their facilities from the two trailers located at City Hall to a building in Rolling Hills

Estates. The building they are relocating to has been undergoing renovations for a couple of years and they anticipate obtaining their final inspection and Certificate of Occupancy (CofO) within the next few weeks. After they receive their CofO, they will be installing the office systems, painting, etc., and anticipate moving sometime in April. Until the move is completed and the trailers removed from the Civic Center, the City will continue to extend their Special Use Permit.

Planning Commission Follow-up Agenda: See attached follow-up agenda from the Planning Commission meeting on Tuesday, March 26, 2019.

RECREATION & PARKS

Hesse Park: The facilities are rented this week for eleven indoor recreation classes, three non-profit group rentals, two private rentals, two Peninsula Seniors activities, one City meeting, and one scout meeting.

Ladera Linda Park: The facilities are occupied this week for four recreation classes and two non-profit rentals. On Monday, March 25th, approximately sixty fifth-graders from Towne Ave. Elementary took a docent-led hike and toured the Discovery Room. Flutterby Story-time was also held on Tuesday, March 26th.

Ryan Park: The facilities are being used this week for five indoor recreation classes and one Scout meeting

PVIC/Docents: The Los Serenos docents will be leading three school tours at PVIC this week. The docent puppet program will be rehearsing this week to prepare for Whale of a Day and the Egg Hunt Eggstravaganza.

Little Fish Tales met in the Sunset Room on March 21, 2019. Kids enjoyed books, songs, felt board story and movement with our new scarves. We explored tide pools, rain and animals in our reading. After story time a tide pool craft was offered. Forty-eight children attended with their parents.

Volunteer Program: Volunteers still needed for an Open Space Event on Saturday, March 30th 9a.m.–Noon. Scouts joined staff this past Saturday to hike the trail to Abalone Cove and pick up trash along the way and on the beach. They hiked about 2.7 miles and found lots of plastic and trash to fill their buckets. Thank you for a clean beach, Scouts! Please go to rpvca.gov/Recreation and Parks/volunteers for more information about future volunteer events for the City and to sign up!

RE: Request the Board Table the Precedential Decision in the Matter of Tracy C. Fuller

Dear Members of CalPERS Board of Administration:

The City of Rancho Palos Verdes thanks you for delaying the consideration of adopting the Tracy C. Fuller decision as precedent and urges you to table the matter indefinitely, as it could have significant, wide-ranging implications for our city and hundreds of municipalities across the state.

Like all cities, Rancho Palos Verdes contracts a multitude of professional services across city departments, whether interim assignments, project-based work, or long term operations that require skilled expertise.

We caution that establishing the Fuller case as precedent for a variety of vendors and contracts is far too broad and could result in short-sighted, unintended consequences impacting key city services.

We also note that CalPERS' public agency audits have demonstrated confusion and inconsistency regarding the hiring, retention, and compensation of short-term interim assignments and third-party contractors, the definition of service credit eligibility, and legitimate third-party employment by which CalPERS enrollment is not required. Far too many audits have imposed penalties on public agencies for allegedly misreporting individuals, and in many instances, retirees have been ordered by CalPERS to reinstate them into the system and to reimburse CalPERS for their pension payments, at great financial hardship.

We ask you to work with municipalities and other CalPERS-covered agencies to develop a streamlined, comprehensive policy for employers to exercise their right to hire professional services when key management positions become vacant or when skilled expertise is needed, while protecting CalPERS and its covered agencies from ambiguity and potential litigation.

CalPERS Board of Administration

March 25, 2019

For these and other reasons, the City of Rancho Palos Verdes urges you to table the precedential decision and to work collaboratively with agencies to come up with a thorough, fair, and reliable policy.

Sincerely,

Doug Willmore
City Manager

Subject: Request for Public Comment Re Designation of Board Decision in the Tracy C. Fuller Matter as Precedential

On July 25, 2018, an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued a Proposed Decision after a public hearing in an administrative appeal before the CalPERS Board of Administration (Board) entitled "In the Matter of the Appeal of Membership Determination of TRACY C. FULLER, Respondent, and CAMBRIA COMMUNITY SERVICES DISTRICT, Respondent."

The Proposed Decision determined that, based on the common law employment test, Respondent Fuller (Respondent) was an employee of Respondent Cambria Community Services District (CCSD) and should have been brought into membership when she began working for Respondent CCSD. The Proposed Decision addresses issues related to the common law employment test, hiring of the individual through labor suppliers, and co-employment.

On September 26, 2018, the Board adopted the Proposed Decision of the ALJ as its final Decision. A copy of the Board's final decision is attached. The Board determined at its meeting on February 21, 2019, to consider the question of whether its Decision in this matter should be designated as precedential and directed staff to take public comment about whether the Decision should be made precedential.

This Request for Public Comment has been issued to solicit your written comments on the question of whether the Board's final Decision in this matter should be made precedential. (Please note: The Board is not requesting comments or arguments on the merits or correctness of its final Decision, which is not up for reconsideration; any such comments or arguments will not be considered.)

In deciding whether to designate a decision as precedential, the Board's policy is to consider the following questions:

- Does the decision contain a significant legal or policy determination of general application that is likely to recur?
- Does it include a clear and complete analysis of the issues in sufficient detail so that interested parties can understand why the findings of fact were made, and how the law was applied?

If you are interested in commenting on whether the Board's Decision should be precedential, please address the questions above, along with any other questions or considerations, and mail, fax or deliver your written comments to:

CalPERS Legal Office
Attn: Preet Kaur, Senior Attorney
P. O. Box 942707
Sacramento, CA 95811
Fax No. (916) 795-3659

Comments must be received in the CalPERS Legal Office no later than 5:00 p.m. PDT, April 15, 2019. Comments should not exceed six pages in length (single spaced). Late comments will not be considered.

The Board will consider all comments received at the May 15, 2019 Board meeting and determine whether to make its final decision in the Tracy C. Fuller matter precedential.

CalPERS staff will provide copies and a summary of the comments received to Board members. CalPERS staff will also provide its written recommendations to the Board. Other than public comment provided in accordance with California Code of Regulations, title 2, section 552.1, oral comment or argument will not be received at the Board meeting.

Questions concerning this notice may be directed to Preet Kaur in the CalPERS Legal Office at (916) 795-1054.

PROPOSED DECISION

Administrative Law Judge Thomas Heller, State of California, Office of Administrative Hearings, heard this matter in San Luis Obispo, California on March 15 and 16, 2018.

Preet Kaur, Senior Attorney, represented the California Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS).

Scott N. Kivel, Esq., represented respondent Cambria Community Services District (CCSD).

Respondent Tracy C. Fuller represented herself.

At the end of the hearing, the record was held open for closing briefs. CalPERS and CCSD filed briefs on May 30, 2018 (exhibits C-19 and 57, respectively), and CCSD also a filed a request for official notice (exhibit 58). Following an objection from CalPERS and a reply from CCSD, the administrative law judge granted the request for official notice in part on June 25, 2018, and the matter was deemed submitted.

SUMMARY

CalPERS determined Fuller was an employee of CCSD who should have been enrolled into CalPERS membership when she worked as CCSD's Interim Finance Manager for eight months in 2014. CCSD appealed, arguing Fuller was not its employee and therefore did not have to be enrolled. A preponderance of the evidence established that Fuller was CCSD's employee for purposes of membership in CalPERS and should have been enrolled. Furthermore, CCSD can reasonably be expected to have known of the enrollment requirement since it was filling a longtime employee position, albeit on an interim basis. Therefore, CCSD's appeal will be denied, and it will be ordered to pay arrears costs for member contributions and administrative costs of $500 due to the error.

FACTUAL FINDINGS

Background

1. CalPERS is the state agency responsible for the administration of the Public Employees' Retirement Law (PERL), Government Code section 20000 et seq.¹
2. CCSD provides water, wastewater, fire, parks, recreation, and open space services to an unincorporated community of over 6,400 people on California's central coast. CCSD is a "contracting agency" with CalPERS, that is, a public entity that has chosen to participate in CalPERS by contract with the CalPERS Board of Administration. (§§ 20022, 20460.)
3. In early 2014, CCSD's long-time Finance Manager gave a 30-day notice that he was retiring. The notice came at a time when CCSD was starting an emergency water project that required the immediate assistance of another skilled financial manager.
4. CCSD did not believe it could recruit adequately for a permanent replacement within 30 days and contacted Regional Government Services (RGS) for assistance in finding an interim replacement. RGS is a joint powers authority² created by the cities of Dublin, Larkspur, and Walnut Creek and the Town of Yountville that provides individuals, mostly professionals, to small and midsize public agencies to perform work. RGS itself is not a

² "The Joint Exercise of Powers Act [Gov. Code, § 6500 et seq.] allows 'governmental agencies [to] join together to accomplish goals that they could not accomplish alone, or that they might more efficiently and more effectively accomplish together.' [Citation.] "[T]wo or more public agencies by agreement may jointly exercise any power common to the contracting parties," and they may join in the creation of a separate entity to exercise those powers on their behalf.' [Citations.]" (San Diegans for Open Government v. City of San Diego (2015) 242 Cal.App.4th 416, 444.)

CalPERS covered agency, but was formed in part to enable CalPERS members and retirees to perform work for CalPERS covered agencies without jeopardizing retirement benefits from prior employment. Under its service model, RGS classifies the individuals as employees of RGS and itself as an independent contractor of the CalPERS covered agencies, thereby seeking to avoid the application of CalPERS pension laws to the individuals' work assignments. RGS currently provides individuals to about 100 public agencies, and has served about 225 public agencies since it started operating in January 2002.

5. RGS identified Fuller as a candidate for the interim position. Fuller had not worked for RGS or CCSD before, but had prior CalPERS membership from past employment with the City of Rancho Palos Verdes and other CalPERS covered agencies. Monique Madrid, CCSD's Administrative Services Officer and District Clerk, interviewed Fuller for the position in late January 2014. After the interview, Jerome Gruber, CCSD's General Manager, selected Fuller for the interim position and obtained approval from CCSD's Board of Directors to contract with RGS for the placement.

6. In early March 2014, CCSD and RGS finalized an "Agreement for Management and Administrative Services" under which CCSD would pay $90 per hour to RGS, plus housing costs of approximately $1,500 per month, in return for RGS assigning "an RGS employee or employees" – identified specifically as Fuller – to "[p]erform the functions of Interim Finance Manager as assigned" and "related work as required" starting March 17, 2014.³ (Exhibit 19.) The agreement was expected to continue through July 21, 2014, after which it would continue month-to-month until one party terminated it. The agreement followed RGS's standard form, and included the following terms:

1.2 Assignment of Personnel. RGS shall assign only competent personnel to perform services pursuant to this Agreement. In the event that Agency [i.e., CCSD], in its sole discretion, at any time during the term of this Agreement, desires the reassignment of any such persons, RGS shall reassign such person or persons. RGS may not reassign the RGS employee identified in Exhibit A [i.e., Fuller] or a subsequent RGS employee approved by the Agency, without the written consent of the Agency.

5.1 It is understood that the relationship of RGS to the Agency is that of an independent contractor and all persons working for or under the direction of RGS are its agents or employees and not agents or employees of

³ The agreement was effective as of February 12, 2014, but the last signature on it was dated March 11, 2014.

Agency. The Agency and RGS shall, at all times, treat all persons working for or under the direction of RGS as agents and employees of RGS, and not as agents or employees of the Agency. Agency shall have the right to control RGS only insofar as the results of RGS's services rendered pursuant to this agreement and assignment of personnel pursuant to Section 1.

- 5.2 RGS shall provide services under this Agreement through one or more employees of RGS qualified to perform services contracted for by Agency. Key RGS staff who will provide services to the Agency are indicated in the Exhibits. The Executive Director will consult with Agency on an as-needed basis to assure that the services to be performed are being provided in a professional manner and meet the objectives of Agency.
- 5.3 Agency shall not have the ability to direct how services are to be performed, specify the location where services are to be performed, or establish set hours or days for performance of services, except as set forth in the Exhibits.
- 5.4 Agency shall not have any right to discharge any employee of RGS from employment. However, Agency shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 2 of this Agreement.
- 5.5 RGS shall, at its sole expense, supply for its employees providing services to Agency pursuant to this Agreement any and all benefits, such as workers' compensation, disability insurance, vacation pay, sick pay, or retirement benefits; obtain and maintain all licenses and permits usual or necessary for performing the services; pay any and all taxes incurred as a result of the employee(s) compensation, including estimated taxes, FICA and other employment taxes; and provide Agency with proof of payment of taxes on demand.

7. Effective February 18, 2014, RGS and Fuller also entered into an "Employment Agreement" under which Fuller agreed to "act as Regional Government Services Advisor assigned to multiple clients.” (Exhibit 36.)⁴ Under the Employment Agreement, Fuller agreed to serve as an at-will employee of RGS for $70 per hour commencing March 17, 2014, the same start date as the agreement between RGS and CCSD. In early March 2014, RGS sent Fuller its standard new employee forms for Fuller to complete and return. CCSD was not a signatory to the Employment Agreement or those employee forms. RGS also gave Fuller a phone extension, email address, and business cards, but not an office because RGS is a “virtual office environment” with no physical offices for employees.

8. Fuller reported to work at CCSD on March 17, 2014. CCSD treated her as an employee of RGS and did not offer her membership in CalPERS or any other retirement or health benefits. CCSD also did not require Fuller to complete its standard new employee documentation or give her a typical new employee orientation. She was given an office, phone, access to some CCSD computer systems, and a CCSD email address, but no laptop computer unlike other CCSD management personnel.

9. Fuller used the title of Interim Finance Manager and performed the day-to-day operations of Finance Manager for CCSD, making decisions on what work should be done by CCSD’s Finance Department. CCSD employees assisted Fuller with projects, but Fuller was not involved in reviewing or disciplining those employees. Among other duties, Fuller attended CCSD board meetings and made presentations to the board on financial issues. The meeting minutes listed Fuller as a CCSD staff member. Fuller also prepared an annual budget and a salary chart for CCSD, worked on a rate study and Proposition 218 study for the emergency water project, and assisted CCSD in securing a loan for that project. Madrigal or Gruber assigned the work to her and reviewed it to determine if it was satisfactory. Fuller did not sign documents for CCSD and did not have access rights to all CCSD computer systems, unlike the Finance Manager who preceded her.

10. CCSD kept a contract file for the agreement with RGS, but did not create a personnel file for Fuller. CCSD also did not pay Fuller directly; instead, RGS did and invoiced CCSD for her hours. Fuller set her own work schedule and was not subject to the hours of other employees, although she was expected to work full time. She often worked at CCSD offices but also worked from other locations. The $1,500 monthly housing allowance paid for Fuller’s housing in the area.

11. While Fuller was working as Interim Finance Manager, CCSD started the search for a permanent Finance Manager. Fuller did not apply for the permanent position. The recruitment materials and accompanying job description stated that the Finance Manager reported to the General Manager and worked under his or her direction.

⁴ Although the Employment Agreement was effective February 18, 2014, Richard Averett, the Executive Director for RGS, did not sign it until May 14, 2014. Fuller signed it on February 26, 2014.

12. In the fall of 2014, CCSD selected Patrick O'Reilly as its new Finance Manager. On October 21, 2014, CCSD gave RGS a 30-day notice to terminate the Agreement for Management and Administrative Services. Fuller's last day of work at CCSD was November 21, 2014.

13. In late 2014, CalPERS selected CCSD for a membership and payroll audit and assigned Antonio Madrigal as the CalPERS staff auditor. Madrigal requested documents from CCSD, interviewed CCSD employees, and had O'Reilly fill out an "Employment Relationship Questionnaire" about Fuller's work. Madrigal did not contact RGS or Fuller. Among other documents, Madrigal received the Agreement for Management and Administrative Services between CCSD and RGS, and a job description for a CCSD Finance Manager from 2006 that was almost identical to the version CCSD used to recruit O'Reilly. CCSD did not have a copy of the Employment Agreement between RGS and Fuller. In the questionnaire, O'Reilly stated Fuller was tasked with providing finance manager services, "but she alone determined what those services were, produced work based on her own knowledge or abilities and was not supervised or evaluated." (Exhibit 41.) O'Reilly also stated Fuller was issued CCSD business cards and stationery.

14. In July 2015, CalPERS sent CCSD a draft audit report stating that Fuller should have been enrolled in CalPERS as an eligible employee under the "common law test of employment." (See Metropolitan Water Dist. v. Superior Court (2004) 32 Cal.4th 491 (Metropolitan)). CCSD responded that Fuller was not an employee of CCSD, but CalPERS's final audit in November 2015 contained the same determination as the draft. CalPERS also determined CCSD was liable for arrears costs for member contributions and administrative costs under section 20283.

15. On August 26, 2016, CalPERS notified CCSD of its right to appeal the decision within 30 days. CCSD timely appealed, and CalPERS filed the Statement of Issues on May 15, 2017. On July 10, 2017, CCSD submitted a Notice of Defense and Objection to the Statement of Issues.

Testimony

16. Madrid testified CCSD was looking for a short-term individual and was trying not to hire an employee. She also testified Fuller did not have CCSD business cards or stationery, despite O'Reilly's statements otherwise in response to the questionnaire from Madrigal.

17. Gruber testified the title of Interim Finance Manager for Fuller was a term of convenience, and should have simply been RGS consultant. Gruber also testified he did not supervise Fuller's day-to-day work because she had a level of expertise and did not need to be told what to do.

18. Averett described RGS as a platform to serve public agencies at more favorable rates than the public sector. He testified CCSD was Fuller's first assignment from RGS, and that she had one other assignment at the City of Artesia, after which RGS and Fuller ended their agreement. He also testified Fuller submitted time cards to RGS while working for CCSD, and participated in RGS internal conference calls with other financial advisors on assignment from RGS.

19. Madrigal testified he relied on O'Reilly's responses on the Employment Relationship Questionnaire, CCSD's job description for Finance Manager, the Agreement for Management and Administrative Services between CCSD and RGS, and his interview of O'Reilly in reaching his audit determination. He also testified that his audit findings were reviewed internally. He did not talk to Fuller during the audit because that was not part CalPERS's audit procedure.

20. Christina Rollins, Section Manager in CalPERS's Employer Account Management Division, testified that employment audits commonly involve claims of a third party employer like the audit in this case. Rollins also opined that obtaining personnel documents about Fuller or interviewing her was unnecessary to complete the audit.

21. Fuller testified she did not consider herself to be an employee of CCSD, and that no one at CCSD directed or supervised her work or reviewed her performance. She set her own hours, and was not required to follow the personnel policies and procedures required of CCSD employees. She characterized her financial work for CCSD as different in kind from the Finance Manager before her due to the emergency water project. She considered Averett to be her boss and herself to be an employee of RGS who was assigned to be a financial advisor for CCSD.

Discussion of evidence

22. Overall, the evidence revealed that RGS, CCSD, and Fuller went to great lengths to try to avoid an employer-employee relationship between CCSD and Fuller. At the same time, the evidence also revealed that Fuller was an interim occupant of the same position occupied by CCSD employees both before and after her. Fuller's characterization of her work for CCSD as different in kind from that of her predecessor simply reflected the different financial work CCSD needed at the time due to the emergency water project. Fuller was still operating in the role of a finance manager in performing that work. Thus, the work she was doing was an integral part of the regular business of CCSD.

LEGAL CONCLUSIONS

Legal standards

1. Enrollment in CalPERS is compulsory for eligible employees of a contracting agency, apart from those excluded by the agency's contract with CalPERS and certain part-time or temporary employees. (§§ 20280 et seq., 20305, 20502.) Here, there is no assertion of a contractual exclusion, and the exclusion for part-time or temporary employees is unavailable because Fuller was already a member of CalPERS from prior employment. (§ 20305, subd. (a).) At the same time, “only an agency’s employees – not those performing services for the agency on other terms – may be enrolled in CalPERS. The PERL makes this rule explicit in section 20300, subdivision (b), which excludes from CalPERS membership “[i]ndependent contractors who are not employees.” (Metropolitan, supra, 32 Cal.4th at p. 499.)

2. As to contracting agencies, the PERL gives the term “employee” no special meaning, stating simply that it means “[a]ny person in the employ of any contracting agency.” (§ 20028, subd. (b).) In Metropolitan, supra, 32 Cal.4th at p. 509, the California Supreme Court held that this provision incorporates a “common law test for employment,” citing Tieberg v. Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board (1970) 2 Cal.3d 943 (Tieberg), and the Restatement Second of Agency in reference to that test. In Tieberg, in determining whether television writers for a production company were employees or independent contractors for purposes of California’s unemployment insurance laws, the court stated that “[t]he principal test of an employment relationship is whether the person to whom service is rendered has the right to control the manner and means of accomplishing the result desired. [Citation.]” (Tieberg, supra, 2 Cal.3d at p. 946.)

3. In addition to that principal test, Tieberg listed “secondary” factors to consider. (Tieberg, supra, 2 Cal.3d at p. 953.) The court declared that “[s]trong evidence in support of an employment relationship is the right to discharge at will, without cause.” (Id. at p. 949, quoting Empire Star Mines Co. v. California Employment Commission (1946) 28 Cal.2d 33, 43 (Empire Star Mines)). The court also listed the following additional factors, derived principally from section 220 of the Restatement Second of Agency: “(a) whether or not the one performing services is engaged in a distinct occupation or business; (b) the kind of occupation, with reference to whether, in the locality, the work is usually done under the direction of the principal or by a specialist without supervision; (c) the skill required in the particular occupation; (d) whether the principal or the workman supplies the instrumentalities, tools, and the place of work for the person doing the work; (e) the length of time for which the services are to be performed; (f) the method of payment, whether by the time or by the job; (g) whether or not the work is a part of the regular business of the principal; and (h) whether or not the parties believe they are creating the relationship of employer-employee.” (Tieberg, supra, 2 Cal.3d at p. 949, quoting Empire Star Mines, supra, 28 Cal.2d at pp. 43-44; see also Isenberg v. California Employment Stabilization Commission (1947) 30 Cal.2d 34, 39 (Isenberg); In re Galt Services Authority (2008) Prec. Dec. No. 08-01; In re Niedengard (2005) Prec. Dec. No. 05-01.)⁵

⁵ These factors remains applicable after Dynamex Operations West, Inc. v. Superior Court (2018) 4 Cal.5th 903, in which the California Supreme Court adopted a different test with respect to the employee or independent contractor question under state wage orders. No wage orders are at issue here.

4. “‘Generally, . . . the individual factors cannot be applied mechanically as separate tests; they are intertwined and their weight depends often on particular combinations.’ [Citation.]” (S. G. Borello & Sons, Inc. v. Dept. of Industrial Relations (1989) 48 Cal.3d 341, 351.) “The label placed by the parties on their relationship is not dispositive, and subterfuges are not countenanced. [Citations.]” (Id. at p. 349.) “The modern tendency is to find employment when the work being done is an integral part of the regular business of the employer and the worker does not furnish an independent business or professional service relative to the employer. [Citation.]” (Santa Cruz Transportation, Inc. v. Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board (1991) 235 Cal.App.3d 1363, 1376 (Santa Cruz Transportation)).

5. “Any employer that fails to enroll an employee into membership when he or she becomes eligible, or within 90 days thereof, when the employer knows or can reasonably be expected to have known of that eligibility shall be required to pay all arrears costs for member contributions and administrative costs of five hundred dollars ($500) per member as a reimbursement to this system’s current year budget.” (§ 20283, subd. (a).) “The board shall determine who are employees and is the sole judge of the conditions under which persons may be admitted to and continue to receive benefits under this system.” (§ 20125.)

Burden of proof

6. “As in ordinary civil actions, the party asserting the affirmative at an administrative hearing has the burden of proof, including . . . the burden of persuasion by a preponderance of the evidence. [Citation.]” (McCoy v. Board of Retirement (1986) 183 Cal.App.3d 1044, 1051, fn. 5; Coffin v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (2006) 139 Cal.App.4th 471, 476; Gov. Code, § 11504.) “The burden of establishing an independent contractor relationship is upon the party attacking the determination of employment. [Citations.]” (Santa Cruz Transportation, supra, 235 Cal.App.3d at p. 1367; see also Isenberg, supra, 30 Cal.2d at p. 38; Southwest Research Institute v. Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board (2000) 81 Cal.App.4th 705, 708.)

7. In this case, CCSD is attacking the determination of employment, and therefore bears the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means “‘evidence that has more convincing force than that opposed to it.’ [Citation.]” (People ex rel. Brown v. Tri-Union Seafoods, LLC (2009) 171 Cal.App.4th 1549, 1567.)

Discussion

8. The evidence established that CCSD had the right to control the manner and means by which Fuller accomplished the result desired, which is the principal test of an employment relationship. (Tieberg, supra, 2 Cal.3d at p. 946.) Gruber chose Fuller specifically for the assignment, and RGS lacked the authority to reassign Fuller without CCSD’s consent. (Factual Finding 6.) At the same time, CCSD could end Fuller’s services at any time by requesting a reassignment or terminating its agreement with RGS. (Ibid.)

9. The position Fuller filled was that of Interim Finance Manager, and the permanent Finance Manager position reported to CCSD's General Manager and worked under his or her direction. (Factual Findings 11, 13.) Fuller's interim status did not negate this reporting obligation. Gruber or Madrid determined what work Fuller would perform for CCSD and assigned it to her directly, not through Averett or someone else at RGS. (Factual Finding 9.) They also reviewed Fuller's work to determine if it was satisfactory. (Ibid.) The Agreement for Management and Administrative Services between RGS and CCSD did not specify what that particular work would be. (Factual Finding 6.)

10. The CCSD Finance Manager before Fuller was a long-time employee of CCSD. (Factual Findings 3, 22.) Fuller's characterization of her work as different in kind from that of her predecessor simply reflected the particular financial work CCSD needed at the time due to the emergency water project. (Factual Finding 22.) The CCSD Finance Manager after Fuller was also hired as an employee. (Factual Findings 11, 22.) Fuller's interim placement in the same position suggests CCSD also had the right to control the manner and means by which Fuller performed her work.

11. CCSD also provided Fuller with an office, phone, access to some CCSD computer systems, and an email address. (Factual Finding 8.) In addition, CCSD paid for her local housing, thereby ensuring she stayed near CCSD's office and was accessible to CCSD. (Factual Finding 10.) CCSD described her in board minutes as a staff member, and the functions she performed were integral to the regular business of CCSD. (Factual Findings 9, 22.) CCSD did not cede control of those integral functions to RGS by virtue of the Agreement for Management and Administrative Services, and Averett and RGS did not control the particular work Fuller performed.

12. Accordingly, analysis of the principal test of an employment relationship leads to the conclusion that Fuller was an employee of CCSD.

13. Reviewing the secondary factors in Tieberg, supra, 2 Cal.3d at p. 949, factors (a) and (b) tend to support employee status, since operating as an Interim Finance Manager for a public agency is not a distinct occupation or business, and is work usually done under the principal's direction. Factor (c) (skill) tends to support independent contractor status, while factor (d) (instrumentalities, tools, and place of work) tends to support employee status since CCSD provided those items to Fuller, although it also allowed her to perform work from outside the office. Factor (e) (length of time) would tend to support independent contractor status were it not for the month-to-month option to extend the agreement between RGS and CCSD. (Factual Finding 6.) With that option, this factor is neutral. Factors (f) (method of payment) and (g) (regular business of principal) tend to support employee status since Fuller was paid by the hour, not the job, and the work she did was part of the regular business of CCSD. (Factual Findings 6, 22.) Factor (h) (belief of the parties) tends to support independent contractor status, since CCSD and Fuller apparently believed Fuller was an employee of only RGS. (Factual Finding 22.)

14. Notwithstanding that belief, the weight of these secondary factors and CCSD's right to control the manner and means of Fuller's work support an employer-employee relationship between CCSD and Fuller. The characterizations in the Agreement for Management and Administrative Services of Fuller as an agent of RGS, and of RGS as an independent contractor of CCSD, were not reflective of the realities of the position she filled and the work she performed.

15. Furthermore, CCSD can reasonably be expected to have known that Fuller was an employee of CCSD who should have been enrolled in CalPERS. CCSD was filling the position of a CCSD employee, albeit on an interim basis. The Finance Managers before and after Fuller were employees, and Fuller was performing the same work as assigned by CCSD under the same job description. The position was an integral part of the regular business of CCSD, and Fuller did not furnish an independent business or professional service relative to CCSD. (See Santa Cruz Transportation, supra, 235 Cal.App.3d at p. 1376.) Therefore, CCSD is liable for all arrears costs for member contributions of Fuller, plus administrative costs of $500 under section 20283.

16. RGS's role in supplying Fuller to CCSD does not compel a different result. No provision of the PERL "suggests that workers hired through labor suppliers are . . . deemed employees of only the labor supplier. Nor, of course, has the Legislature provided in the PERL for any coemployment exception to a contracting agency's duty to enroll employees in CalPERS. The only relevant legislative choice to date has been to require enrollment of all persons in the 'employ' of the contracting agency. [Citation.]" (Metropolitan, supra, 32 Cal.4th at p. 506.)

17. In its closing brief, CCSD asserts that CalPERS's board has failed to exercise its authority under section 20125 to define "employee." But CCSD has not shown that the CalPERS board had a duty to adopt a regulation defining "employee." CCSD also asserts that the CalPERS audit was "fatally defective" because it was too cursory and was based on only a few documents. (CCSD Closing Brief at p. 8.) But CCSD has now presented more documents and testimony, none of which proves the audit determination was wrong.

18. CCSD also argues CalPERS's decision was based on an underground regulation, but does not identify any "unlawful standard of general application" that CalPERS used to reach the decision. (CCSD Closing Brief at p. 14.) Rather, CCSD asserts the decision itself is an unlawful standard of general application (see id.), which lacks evidentiary support. In addition, CCSD argues the RGS service model represents important public policy, because decisions to deliver cost-effective and efficient services should rest with local agencies. (Ibid.) But the purpose of the PERL itself "is to effect economy and efficiency in the public service by providing a means whereby employees who become superannuated or otherwise incapacitated may, without hardship or prejudice, be replaced by more capable employees, and to that end provide a retirement system consisting of retirement compensation and death benefits." (§ 20001.) The RGS service model as applied in this case subjected CCSD and Fuller to the provisions of PERL.

ORDER

CCSD's appeal is denied. In addition, CCSD shall pay all arrears costs for member contributions of Fuller, plus administrative costs of $500, within 30 days of the effective date of this order.

RE: Motion to Amend County Policy on Enhanced Infrastructure Financing Districts - Minimum Property Tax Thresholds

Dear Supervisor Barger:

The City of Rancho Palos Verdes supports your motion to amend County policy adopted on August 1, 2017, requiring minimum property tax thresholds to participate in Enhanced Infrastructure Financing Districts (EIFD) and Community Revitalization and Investment Authority Projects (CRIA). The proposed amended policy would enable the County to consider city revenues from other local, state, and federal sources when evaluating participation in an EIFD, opening the door for more cities to partner with the County on EIFDs.

EIFDs and CRIAs are critical tools for multiple public entities to collaboratively address the state's housing crisis, infrastructure deficit, sustainability goals, and economic development needs through tax increment financing. The current County minimum requirement that a "City's share of property tax increment must equal a minimum of 15 cents ($0.15) for every dollar ($1.00) captured in the EIFD Project Area," preemptively eliminates the opportunity for 71 cities to approach the County to participate in an EIFD. Rancho Palos Verdes receives 6% of property tax share, making it ineligible. The policy also ignores the legislative intent of EIFDs and CRIAs, which was to provide additional funding mechanisms to disadvantaged communities.

Cities cannot increase or change their property tax allocations. Current property tax allocations were set after voters approved Proposition 13 in 1979. But cities can bring other resources to the table. We encourage the County to evaluate County/City EIFD and CRIA partnerships based on the other comprehensive requirements outlined in the adopted policy, including the merits of the proposed project, alignment with Board priorities and fiscal impacts to the County.

Thank you for consideration of this revision. Without this amendment by the Board, we believe cities are deterred from engaging the County on a variety of essential infrastructure and economic development projects that, if enabled, could produce significant social and economic benefits for Los Angeles County for many years to come. We urge the Board of Supervisors to take quick action on this matter to ensure that all communities have an opportunity to foster growth and economic opportunity.

Sincerely,

Doug Willmore

MARCH 26, 2019

CLARIFYING COUNTY EIFD POLICY

On August 1, 2017, this Board of Supervisors approved a policy governing the formation of Enhanced Infrastructure Finance Districts (EIFD) between the cities and the County. Listed as a minimum requirement within the policy is a provision that cities must contribute a share of property tax equal to at least 15 cents ($0.15) for every dollar ($1.00) of tax increment. If cities can't meet that threshold they would only be eligible if there are significant overriding considerations that merit further review and assessment, such as the merits of the proposed project, its potential positive impacts on the County and region, and alignment with other Board priorities such as the creation of affordable housing.

The Chief Executive Office (CEO) has been responding to numerous letters from cities expressing concerns about the 15% threshold being listed as a minimum requirement. CEO noted that, per Board policy, a city may still be eligible if they don't meet the threshold by demonstrating overriding considerations. The lack of clarity between the adopted Board policy and subsequent communications on the policy has led to some confusion among cities interested in the program. Therefore, clarifying language is necessary to align with the original intent of the Board.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors direct the Chief Executive Officer in conjunction with County Counsel, to amend the County's policy on "Evaluating Enhanced Infrastructure Financing District (EIFD) and Community Revitalization and Investment Authority (CRIA) Projects" within 30 days to clarify that:

- 1) Sources of funding other than property tax may be used to achieve a recommended 15% threshold,
- 2) Failure to meet the 15% threshold does not preclude a city's ability to participate in an EIFD with the County, and
- 3) Overriding considerations may be considered in lieu of the 15% threshold.

Amy Seeraty
Associate Planner
Rancho Palos Verdes, CA 90275

Dear Amy:

Our final inspection is scheduled for March 28 and a punch list walk through is scheduled for this coming Friday. We will then have to wait for our Certificate of Occupancy which, I understand, is issued by the County.

Once we receive the CO we will still have to build out the offices, do some decorative painting, install the security, telephone and computer systems and, of course, bring in all the furniture that is stored in my and our Executive Director's mother's garages.

It will take us one or two weeks to do these things after we get our CO. We also will need to get rid of the contents of our two double-wide trailers and remove them. We hope to do this as quickly as possible but are not able to develop a firm schedule at this time. I'll certainly let you know as soon as I can.

As always, feel free to contact me.
