- Question: Is the landscape architect who designed the concept plans allowed to propose on this RFP?
 - Yes, Richard Fisher Associates was sent the RFP
- Does the City intend for this project to be led by a Civil Engineer, Architect, or Landscape Architect??
 - No preference
- Would the City prefer an architect lead or landscape architect lead? With the demolition and construction of the new community center I feel it could go either way, so it's now a matter of preference that the City has.
 - No Preference
- We received the list of firms who received the RFP, but will the City be posting a list of those firms that attended the pre-proposal meeting (sign-in sheet) that was held on August 14?
 - The full list of firms that received an RFP has been posted on the City's website. <http://www.rpvca.gov/982/Ladera-Linda-Park-Master-Plan>
- Is there an expected DBE % required for this solicitation? And, if so what is the expected %?
 - There is no DBE required for this project.
